

Meet your coach Jacqui

Introduction

My name is Jacqui

Hi, I'm a qualified teacher, coach and person-centered counsellor, and I'm here for YOU!

All About me

Hello! I'm a kind, friendly, and approachable teacher who genuinely believes that every one of you can achieve amazing things (yes, even on a Monday morning!). When I'm not in school, you'll likely find me either at the gym, wandering the hills, or chatting to cows—because honestly, who doesn't love a cow? I'm a big fan of chocolate, most animals, and ending the day curled up with a good book (and maybe more chocolate).
